DIRECTORS' NOTES

The play you see before you is the first of its kind, consisting of a cast and production team from both Periscope Productions and SUDS (Sydney University Dramatic Society). The play itself consists of seventeen characterless scenes that revolved around a central figure, Anne. Directing a play such as this interstate has been somewhat of a challenge, but one that has undeniably lead to an incredible amalgamation of complex ideas.

Both casts have laid a focus on exploring different aspects of Anne, with each actor driving a unique perspective throughout the play. Having finally united days before the Sydney season, our work has been centred on drawing links between our processes, our understandings and our explorations of the text.

We are thrilled to be directors of this inaugural interstate theatre experiment and hope that the creative friendships made will continue the relationship between the University of Melbourne and the University of Sydney for years to come.
